

Brad Dewey, EVP/Chief Financial Officer,
with All Star Winner Alison Mullican, Sr. Accountant

ALISON MULLICAN

When you walk into Access Community Credit Union you see familiar people and faces. But, truth is, those people are only a part of our success as a credit union. Our back office also has many stars. We refer to them as our hidden treasures. One of them is Alison Mullican, Senior Accountant. Alison has only been with Access for a short time, yet she has made a big impact. She came to Access eager to work and has quickly become an important asset to the team. Things other employees say about Alison are; she is always so friendly and helpful, no matter what the task and she is a team player. Because she works in the back office, not many people have the opportunity to interact with her. But, when given the chance, everyone is pleased to work with her. We are excited to have Alison on our team and are proud to name her the first quarter Access All Star. Congratulations Alison!

WE'VE GOTTEN OUR
INLINE.

You spoke and we listened. With online and mobile banking growth accelerating we have teamed up with Corillian. This fall, Corillian will be our new online banking platform, making it much easier to handle your online banking needs. Corillian is very functional and offers a number of great features including online bill pay, person-to-person payments and payment scheduling. Used by some of the largest Credit Unions and military Credit Unions, Corillian also aggregates from over 17,000 other financial institutions. Corillian was designed with mobile banking in mind with its simplicity and large touchable objects.

In addition to Corillian we also teamed up with CardValet to provide ease of mind when it comes to your debit card. In case of a lost or stolen card, CardValet acts like a light switch. Allowing you to instantly turn your card on and off. You'll also receive alerts based on location, transaction amount and merchant type. It also informs you if your card has been denied, allowing you to get a jump on fraud. CardValet gives you control of family spending by choosing when, where and how your family spends on their card. Sure, the kids can spend a few bucks on lunch, but not $100 at the mall. CardValet can also use your phones GPS to limit the range in which your debit card can be used. It's also a handy way to keep track of your current balance and for locating ATM's. CardValet is a simple app that you download to your mobile device to easily track your debit card. With CardValet you use your card on your terms.

Apple Pay is a mobile payment system that allows you to pay for purchases in select retail and online stores with a simple convenient touch of your finger. Simply upload your debit or credit card to your phone through the App store or the Google play store.
