11. Tips for Remote Deposit Capture

- Before logging into the Mobile Deposit app, close all other apps running in the background on your mobile phone.
- Sign/Endorse the back of your check, and label it “For Deposit Only.”
- When prompted for the amount, carefully enter the check amount to ensure it matches the amount written on your check.
- Flatten folded or crumpled checks before taking your photos.
- Keep the check within the view finder on the camera screen when capturing your photos.
- Try not to get too much of the areas surrounding the check.
- Take the photos of your check in a well-lit area.
- Place the check on solid dark background before taking the photo of it.
- Keep your phone flat and steady above the check when taking your photos.
- Hold the camera as square to the check as possible to reduce corner to corner skew.
- Make sure that the entire check image is visible and in focus before submitting your deposit.
- No shadows across the check.
- All four corners are visible.
- Check is not blurry.
- The MICR line (numbers on the bottom of your check) is readable.

12. How will I know if my check is rejected or not?

Users can view their deposit history through the mobile app. Deposits will either show as “Accepted”, “Pending”, or “Failed.”

The Credit Union reserves the right to reject any item deposited through RDC at our discretion. An image is considered as received where the term “Accepted” is used. However, this does not mean that the image transmitted through without any error. The Credit Union reserves that right to reject any item after the image has been “Accepted” at any time at our discretion. You must check your account history to confirm that the item has been posted.

13. What should I do with my paper check after using Remote Deposit Capture?

Item Retention: After your item has been termed “Accepted” through RDC you agree to retain the original check for ten days and present the original check to us at our request. If the check is not presented to us in a timely manner after request, ACCU reserves the right to reverse the item amount from your account.

Item Destruction: After the ten days of item retention, you agree to destroy the original item by first marking the item as “VOID” and the properly shredding the check. You may bring any original items that you submitted to ACCU through RDC to any of our branches and we will properly destroy these for you. You agree that you will never re-present the original check.
